Judging will begin promptly at 9 AM on February 23, 2008. If necessary, a special judging session will be held the evening of Friday February 22nd.

BABBLE is proud to announce that the 2008 Leap Beer Brew Off will again be a stop on the Midwest Homebrewer of the Year circuit (<http://sphbc.truthbrew.com/mwhboy/>). We are also pleased to bring you our Entrant Appreciation Drawing. The name of one participant will be selected at random and this person will win a special gift package. Each entry qualifies you in the drawing, so the more you submit the better your chances at winning!

New in 2008: There will be a separate best of show judging for Meads and Ciders. Ribbons will be awarded for 1st, 2nd and 3rd best of show in these categories so dust off some of those bottles and take a chance on winning more ribbons.

Sanctioning

This event is sanctioned by the AHA and judged using the 2004 BJCP Style Guidelines. Detailed style descriptions may be found on the BJCP web page <http://www.bjcp.org/styles04/>. Entrants may enter as many beers as they like but are restricted to one entry per sub-category. Entrants are responsible for placing their beer in the proper category. No entry will be reclassified. Some categories may be combined at the organizer's discretion. Entries in combined categories will be judged according to the style originally indicated by the brewer on the entry form.

Eligibility

BABBLE Leap Beer Brew Off is open to all homebrewers 21 years of age and older. Professional brewers 21 and older may enter, however, their entries must have been brewed at home. Beers brewed by two or more individuals must list the names of all involved on the entry form. Entries will be accepted from all BJCP beer, mead and cider categories. No entries brewed in a commercial facility or BOP will be accepted.
